SUBJECT: TURKMENISTAN: CHARGE TO FM MEREDOV: RELEASE
DURDYMURADOV

REF: ASHGABAT 0807

Classified By: CDA RICHARD E. HOAGLAND: 1.4 (B), (D)

¶1. (C) When Foreign Minister Rashid Meredov called him in June 30 on other business, Charge took the opportunity to raise the issue of detained Radio Free Europe/Radio Liberty contributor Sazak Durdymuradov, and passed to the minister a copy of the Department's June 27 press statement.

¶2. (C) Meredov read the statement several times and then said he was aware of the case (reftel). Charge pressed that the 60-year-old schoolteacher is a respected member of his community and that his physical abuse and detention in a psychiatric facility is a dark blot on the reputation of the new government of Turkmenistan. He urged Meredov to use his influence to release Durdymuradov and return him to his family. Meredov indicated he clearly understood the gravity of the case. He said, "Please continue to work with me at our level on this," but he made no commitment.

¶3. (C) COMMENT: Everyone in the Foreign Ministry we have raised the Durdymuradov case with -- Americas Director Serdar Bashimov, First Deputy Foreign Minister Wepa Hajiyevev, and now Meredov -- clearly understands the gravity of this case and its ramifications. We are not certain Meredov can influence the right levels, but we are certain he is clear about what needs to be done. END COMMENT.
